Onde-Onde

Ingredients

- 1 cup coconut milk
- 1 screwpine leave or 1/2 tsp pandan paste
- 1 tsp sugar
- green colouring
- 1/2 cup block brown sugar (gula melaka)(chopped up)

For coating:

- 1 cup fresh grated coconut (the white part only)
- a pinch of salt

Method

Extract coconut milk using a blender. Add in the screwpine leave and blend together. Sieve it. Leave aside. Mix grated coconut with salt. Leave aside.

Mix sugar and colouring into the coconut milk. In a bowl add in the rice flour, add bit by bit the coconut milk and make into a dough.

Boil some water in a bowl. Leave it to boil first. Take a marble size or bigger the dough. Flatten it in your palm add a bit of chopped brown sugar as filling and cover and roll into a small ball size.

Immediately put it into boiling water. Do the same way with the rest of the dough. Cooked balls will float up in the water. Dish out and roll it in the grated coconut.

Leave it to cool before serving. (try using rose essence if you can't get screwpine leaves)

Onde-Onde Ball

Ingredients

8-10 pandan leaves (screwpine, cut into 2cm lengths or substitute with a few drops of green colouring)

200 g glutinous rice flour (sifted)

1 pinch salt

1/2 cup hot water

1/4 grated coconut, mixed with

1 pinch salt (place in a bowl)

Filling :

60 g palm sugar (cut into small cube, 3mm)

1 tablespoon soft brown sugar

Method

Pound pandan leaves, add a little water and pound. Strain using a sieve to obtain thick green colour juice and put aside. Put sifted glutinous rice flour and pinch of salt in a mixing bowl. Pour in hot water and pandan juice, stir well to form a smooth dough. If dough is too stiff, add a little water; if it is too wet, add a little glutinous flour. Divide dough into 20 small pieces and form lime-size balls. Flatten each piece on your palm.

Put a cube of palm sugar and brown sugar in the centre, wrap it up (more brown sugar is nicer). You have to wrap up carefully so the filling won't leak when bring to boil. Drop the onde-onde into boiling water. When the balls are cooked they will float.

Scoop up the onde-onde with a perforated ladle and put into the bowl with grated coconut. Pick it up, put on plate and serve.

Malay Style Curry Puff

Ingredients

For water dough :

200 g plain flour
100 ml water, mixed with
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon shortening or margarine
for oil dough
100 g plain flour
75 g margarine or shortening
light soy sauce, to taste
1 dash pepper

For filling :

220 g potatoes (cubed)
100 g big onions (cubed)
2 tablespoons curry powder
1 tablespoon fried chili paste
1 sprig curry leaves (optional)
1 tablespoon oyster sauce
salt, to taste
sugar, to taste

Method

To make WATER DOUGH, place flour in a mixing bowl. Rub in shortening and add in the water. Knead into a smooth dough and leave aside to rest for 10 minutes. Divide into 12 equal portions. To make OIL DOUGH, rub shortening or margarine into the flour to form an oily dough. Divide into 12 equal portions. To make FILLING, heat pan with 3 tbsp oil. Fry all the ingredients till fragrant.

Add water and fry till dry. Add water again and fry till dry and potato become soft. Cover the pan once in a while so that the potato will be cooked faster. Leave to cool. Next wrap oil dough inside water dough. Flatten the dough using a rolling pin to shape a thin circle. Add filling and seal the sides. Pinch the edges to form a scallop design or any design. Deep fry puffs in medium hot oil.

Note:

U can make the filling a bit more saltier because when u eat it with the puff it will make the filling taste blander.

Hokkien Mee

Ingredients

600 g hokkien noodles	4 small fresh red chillies, seeded, sliced
2 eggs, beaten	2 teaspoons sugar
1 tablespoon water	200 g red capsicums, seeded, sliced
60 ml vegetable oil	150 g green capsicum, seeded, sliced
2 tablespoons grated fresh ginger	4 green onions, sliced
4 cloves garlic, crushed	100 g shredded chinese cabbage
80 ml ketjap manis	400 g chinese barbecue pork, sliced
60 ml oyster sauce

Method

Rinse noodles under hot water; drain. Transfer to a large bowl, separate with a fork (being careful not to break them).

Heat a large oiled non-stick pan; pour in half the combined eggs and water. Swirl pan to make a thin omelette; cook until just set.

Transfer omelette to board, roll tightly, cut into thin strips. Repeat with remaining egg mixture. Heat 1 tablespoon of the oil in a wok or large pan; stir-fry ginger, garlic, chilli and sugar until fragrant.

Add vegetables; stir-fry until cabbage is just wilted. Remove vegetables from pan. Heat remaining oil in same pan; stir-fry noodles 2 minutes.

Add vegetables, pork and combined sauces; stir-fry until heated through. Serve sprinkled with omelette strips.

Beef and Chicken Satay

Ingredients

- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 2 teaspoons turmeric
- 1 teaspoon ground coriander
- 1/2 teaspoon cumin
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 tablespoon fish sauce
- 1 pinch salt
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- 1 1/4 lbs lean beef or chickens or lamb or pork, sliced thinly into strips

Method

Soak a package of small bamboo skewers in water for 2-3 hours. Prepare all ingredients and have at hand.

Combine the seasoning ingredients in a medium size bowl and mix well. Mix the meat with the seasoning and marinate at room temperature for one hour or refrigerate overnight.

Preheat a grill or broiler. Thread the marinated meat onto the skewers. Cook the satays over a hot fire or broil them in the oven for 3 to 5 minutes per side, or until done.

Do not leave them unattended! .Serve immediately on a garnished plate. The best flavor is from grilling, but you can broil skewers in the oven too.

Use a cookie sheet lined with aluminum foil and cake rack to keep the skewers off the foil, otherwise they will simmer in their own juices, becoming tough and dry.

Singapore Burgers

Ingredients

- |                                       |  |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| 12 ounces fresh mushrooms, sliced     | 4 scallions, chopped                                     |
| 1 tablespoon peanut oil               | 2 tablespoons soy sauce                                  |
| 1 tablespoon hot sesame oil           | 2 tablespoons ground ginger                              |
| 1 tablespoon dark sesame oil          | 1 tablespoon cornstarch                                  |
| 1 lb ground chuck                     | 2-3 tablespoons chopped cilantro                         |
| 2 eggs, beaten                        | 1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper                              |
| 4 pieces red leaf lettuce             | 4 sandwich buns or kaiser rolls,(split and toasted ) |
| 1/4 cup peanut satay sauce (optional) |  |

Method

Heat oils in a skillet. Add mushrooms and cook 5-8 minutes or until tender.

Prepare grill, remembering to oil grate (can also cook burgers on griddle or under the broiler).

Mix together ground beef, beaten eggs, chopped scallions, soy sauce, ginger, cornstarch, cilantro, and cayenne (may omit if you don't like it spicy).

Form burgers into 4 equal size patties and place on waxed paper until ready to cook.

Cook burgers about 15 minutes or until cooked through to your liking, flipping them over once, but do not press burgers while cooking.

Toast buns. Serve burgers on toasted buns with sauteed mushrooms, lettuce, and a little bit of peanut sauce (if desired). Use a cookie sheet lined with aluminum foil and cake rack to keep the skewers off the foil, otherwise they will simmer in their own juices, becoming tough and dry.

Chendol(jenDol)

Ingredients

- 10 screwpine leaves
- 2-3 drops green food coloring
- 1/2 cup green pea flour (hoon kway)
- 5 tablespoons palm sugar
- 1 tablespoon granulated sugar
- 4 1/2 cups water
- 1 coconut, grated
- salt

Method

Pound screwpine leaves to extract the juice. Add sufficient water to the juice with green food coloring to make 2 cups. Mix green pea flour with the juice. Cook this mixture over medium heat stirring continuously until it bubbles. Place chendol frame (I have no idea what this even looks like, but should be a sieve with large holes) over a basin of cold water and ice cubes. Spoon the cooked screwpine mixture onto the chendol frame and with a spatula, press through the holes into the cold water.

Drain off the water and chill the chendol. Boil the palm sugar and granulated sugar with 1/2 cup water to get syrup. Strain and cool the syrup. Add the remaining water to the grated coconut and extract coconut milk. Add a good pinch of salt to the coconut milk. To serve, place 1 tablespoon chendol into a small serving bowl, then add 1 tablespoon syrup and 1/4 cup coconut milk. Top the bowl with ice shavings and serve immediately.

Note:

If pure green pea flour is used, mix 2 1/2 cups of screwpine juice to 1/2 cup green pea flour.

Lamb Rendang

Ingredients

- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 large onions, chopped
- 1 teaspoon dried red pepper flakes
- 1 tablespoon crushed ginger
- 6 cloves garlic, crushed
- 2 lbs lamb, cut in 3/4 inch cubes
- 2 teaspoons dried lemon grass or 3 stalks fresh lemongrass, with ends crushed
- 2 cups water
- 3 cups coconut milk, divided
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- salt

Method

Fry onion, red pepper flakes, ginger root and garlic in 3 Tbsp oil. When golden brown, add meat, lemon grass, water, and 1 1/2 cups coconut milk.

Bring to a boil. When meat is almost cooked, add sugar and remaining coconut milk. Return to a boil. Lower heat and allow to simmer until very tender, about 1 1/2 hours.

When done, meat will be very tender and much of the liquid should have evaporated giving the dish a stew-like quality.

Add salt to taste and serve with rice.flour.

Malaysian Chicken Curry

Ingredients

3 skinless chicken thighs
1 cup frozen mixed vegetables
1 tablespoon ginger, minced
1 tablespoon garlic, minced
1 tablespoon onions, minced
2 tablespoons curry powder
2 tablespoons chili paste
2 red chili, chopped
1/2 cup coconut milk
2 tablespoons curry leaves, chopped

3 skinless chicken thighs
1 cup frozen mixed vegetables
1 tablespoon ginger, minced
1 tablespoon garlic, minced
1 tablespoon onions, minced
2 tablespoons curry powder
2 tablespoons chili paste
2 red chili, chopped
1/2 cup coconut milk
2 tablespoons curry leaves, chopped

Method

Heat olive oil in a medium saucepan. Once hot, turn heat down to medium hot and saute onion, garlic, chopped chilli, ginger for 2 minutes. Stir in curry powder, mix well for another minute. Stir in chilli paste, stir fry until well-combined. Add curry leaves and lemongrass, stir fry until fragrant (about 2 minutes). Add about 1 cup of water and coconut milk. Simmer for 2 minutes. Add the chicken pieces and let cook over low heat for approximately 20 minutes, adding more water if you find it too dry. In the meantime, dry fry the dessicated coconut with turmeric, ground ginger, garlic powder, chilli flakes, salt and pepper until lightly browned (you can also toast it in the oven at 300°F for 5-10mins but you have to watch it VERY carefully as it burns quickly; you may need to stir once or twice). Add the evaporated milk to the curry, stir well. Add the vegetables and simmer for another 10 minutes.

You may add some salt and pepper if desired (i usually add a good dash of black pepper). Finally, stir in the dessicated coconut (the mixture should be quite thick). Serve over hot coconut rice (nasi lemak), garnished with sliced cucumber. Add salt to taste and serve with rice.

| 50 g red lentils               | 1/2 teaspoon ground turmeric               |
| 1 teaspoon black mustard seeds | 4 spring onions, chopped                   |
| 6 dried curry leaves           | 600 g peeled and chooped butternut pumpkin |
| 2 cloves garlic, crushed       | 500 ml water                               |
| 2 teaspoons ground coriander   | 15 g shredded coconut                      |

Method

Heat ghee in pan and add lentils, seeds an 1 teaspoon ground cumin

1/2 teaspoon ground turmeric

4 spring onions, chopped

600 g peeled and chooped butternut pumpkin

500 ml water

15 g shredded coconut d curry leaves and cook stirring until lentils are browned and seeds pop.

Add garlic, spices and spring onions, cook stirring until spices become nice and fragrant.

Add pumpkin and water and simmer covered 10 minutes.

Add coconut milk, cook uncovered for about 5 minutes and the pumpkin is tender.

Spicy Stir-Fried Rice Noodle

Ingredients

100 g rice noodles or vermicelli	1 tablespoon curry powder
2 cups chinese cabbage	1 tablespoon shrimp paste
1 cup bean sprouts	1 tablespoon oyster sauce
3 pieces shiitake mushrooms (about 1 cup)	soy sauce, to taste
2 cloves minced garlic	black pepper, to taste
1 small red onions, chopped	salt, to taste
1/4 cup dried shrimps	chili flakes, to taste
1/2 cup anchovies	3 tablespoons olive oil
2 small eggs

Method

Soak noodles in cold water for 1/2 hour or warm water for 15mins, then drain. Beat eggs with fork in a small bowl, with a pinch of salt and black pepper. Spray non-stick frying pan with cooking spray and fry beaten eggs. Remove and slice egg into strips. Heat canola oil in non-stick frying pan.

Once hot, fry anchovies until golden brown and fragrant. Remove and use kitchen paper towel to soak up excess oil from anchovies. Still using the remaining oil, saute garlic, onions and dried shrimps for approx 2 minutes over medium heat, until fragrant.

Add cabbage, sprouts and mushrooms, saute for 1-2 minutes (until half-cooked). Add curry powder, belacan powder, black pepper, oyster sauce, chilli flakes, continue to stir fry. Add pre-soaked noodle and stir-fry until noodles are cooked. Add soy sauce (i use about 1 tablespoon), stir-fry until sauce is well-incorporated in noodles (you may want to taste noodles before adding too much soy sauce). Top with crispy anchovies and sliced egg-strips before serving.
